Date Tuesday, March 20, 2018

WHEREAS Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) is based on the belief that the proper design and effective use of the built environment can lead to a reduction in the fear and incidence of crime, can influence certain desired human behavior, as well as an improvement in the quality of life;

AND WHEREAS CPTED is recognized as a proactive, effective, and economical planning tool adopted by Police, Emergency and Building Services within municipalities across Canada;

AND WHEREAS during its 2018 Budget Deliberations, Council approved a business case for an additional ongoing operational budget of $50,000 to conduct audits related to significant capital projects, town centres, etc., including municipal building retrofits;

AND WHEREAS the City has one trained CPTED auditor as does the Police Service;

AND WHEREAS the Tom Davies Courtyard construction project is ongoing and it would be beneficial to conduct a CPTED audit as the project progresses with regard to matters such as landscape selections, etc.;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the City of Greater Sudbury direct staff to conduct a CPTED audit of the Tom Davies Square Courtyard construction project for upcoming components such as, but not limited to, public art, landscape selections, etc.
