Title: Motion for Information on KED

Date: Tuesday, January 25, 2022

Moved By Councillor Montpellier

Seconded By Councillor Signoretti

As Amended:

WHEREAS the KED has been promoted as being at no cost to the taxpayers;

AND WHEREAS property tax revenue, promoted as paying for the Arena/Event Centre, has not been committed to, currently placing the cost burden on taxpayers instead;

AND WHEREAS the cost to taxpayers is now projected in excess of $115 million;

AND WHEREAS the Casino operator has concluded, citing risks, that it would not be commercially reasonable for them to continue funding of site development and, has notified that they will resume funding of the site development pending favorable resolution of those risks;

AND WHEREAS the City of Calgary and the National Hockey League have taken into consideration serious financial impact of already escalated construction cost and serious risk of future escalated costs for the planned Arena/Event Centre in Calgary;

AND WHEREAS city finance has informed taxpayers of having no control of 4.7 percent inflation, 13.6 percent rise in construction costs, increases to insurance, gas and heating bills;

AND WHEREAS the City of Greater Sudbury website has confirmed that there are no signed build agreements beyond site preparation;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that city staff is hereby directed to gather and present to Council information describing the implications if the partners for the KED choose to not proceed with the site preparation or respective financial contributions.
