Background

At the meeting of June 13, 2023, Council reviewed proposed revisions for CGS Strategic Plan 2019-2027. These revisions were based on Council's review and input provided January of this year.

Members of Council put forward several minor changes to the proposed language and directed staff to incorporate these changes and return with a final draft of the document at the meeting on July 11, 2023.

The final draft text for the City of Greater Sudbury Strategic Plan 2019-2027 (Revised July 2023) is attached as Appendix A. Staff recommends that Council approve the revised document and, following this, a final version, with graphics, will be developed for circulation to Council and for posting on the CGS website.

The revised plan will form the basis of annual business planning from this point forward. It will inform the 2024-25 Municipal Budget and departmental work plans for the balance of 2023 and future years.
