

By-law 2018-132

A By-law of the City of Greater Sudbury to Authorize a Transfer Payment Agreement with the Ministry of Housing
Regarding the Portable Housing Benefit – Special Priority Policy Program

Whereas the Province of Ontario has developed the Portable Housing Benefit pilot program to provide an alternate method of providing financial assistance to low income households who are eligible for Rent-Geared-to-Income subsidies;

And Whereas the City of Greater Sudbury has qualified for funding under the Portable Housing Benefit Program;

Now therefore Council of the City of Greater Sudbury hereby enacts as follows:

Sign the Transfer Agreement

1. The Manager of Housing Services is hereby authorized to execute an Ontario Transfer Payment Agreement and all amendments thereto, all extensions and other related documents between the City of Greater Sudbury and the Ministry of Housing and the Ministry of Finance to receive funding under the Portable Housing Benefit Program and is further authorized to administer and implement the Transfer Payment Agreement in accordance with its terms, including signing on behalf of the City such reports and documents as may be required pursuant to the Transfer Payment Agreement.

Advance Funds

2. The Treasurer is hereby authorized to advance funds received pursuant to the Ontario Transfer Payment Agreement for use in accordance with the Portable Housing Benefit Program upon the written instruction of the Manager of Housing Services.

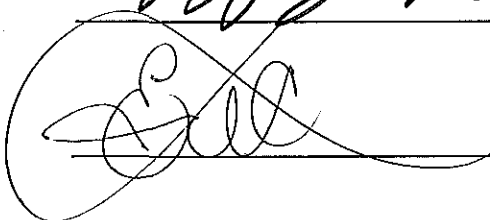

Effective

3. This By-law comes into effect upon passage.
