SUBJECT: Highway Memorials for Fallen Police Officers Bridge Dedication in Memory of Sergeant Frederick Davidson

Mr. Labelle:

The family of the late Sergeant Frederick Davidson has submitted a request to have the bridge at the structure for Wanup Pit Road on Highway 69 be dedicated in his memory.

On July 11th, 1937 Sergeant Frederick Davidson attempted to question two men who were changing licence plates on a vehicle, when one of the men pulled a gun and fatally wounded Sgt. Davidson.

In accordance with the Highway Memorials for Fallen Police Officer Act, 2002 we require written consent from the Municipality in which the signs are being installed. This is a very important initiative not only for the families but for this Police Service and our community.

If you should require any further information, please contact Ms. Natalie Corcoran at 705.675.9171, extension 2287 or via email at natalie.corcoran@gsps.ca.

I look forward to a response to this matter at your earliest convenience.
